

30cheers for 30 years

Every South Western Ambulance Service staff member and volunteer, from the front-line to support services

Every single donor who has ever supported us with a one-off or regular donation

All our fabulous fundraisers who have raised money through your efforts and creativity

Everyone who took on an Outrun an Ambulance challenge

Online shoppers who signed up to EasyFundraising; you shopped, they gave

Everyone who makes micro-donations through their payroll-giving every month with Microhive (was called Pennies from Heaven)

Players who buy tickets to local lotteries that support us

NHS Charities Together for their substantial grant support and valuable partnership working

Staff temporarily redeployed to the Charity team for your insights and contributions

All the volunteer collectors who stood in the dark and cold at the Cheltenham Festival to raise thousands of pounds from race goers – and thanks to the Cheltenham Race Course too

Anyone who has left us a gift in their will

Companies who have donated goods from Easter eggs and Starbucks coffees, to electrical white goods and advent calendars

Fundraising sky-divers who bravely leapt from planes

Fundraising wing-walkers who bravely strapped on to the top of planes

Runners and walkers and cyclists who took on epic physical challenges

Groups who took on challenges together, like the CCF cadets who climbed the equivalent height of Mount Everest

Rural communities who raised funds and smiles with a Tractor Run

International adventurers who take on challenges like trekking to Macchu Picchu

UK trekkers who take on challenges like climbing Snowdon or the Three Peaks

The soap box derby racers who built their machines and raced them downhill

Every donor who ever ticked 'yes' for Gift Aid so we could add 25p for every £1

Bakers and the cake eaters who raised funds from cake sales and bake-offs

Crafters, makers, writers and painters who showed their support with their creative contributions, through royalties, sales and donations

Raffle organisers, prize givers and ticket buyers

Quiz masters and quiz goers who took on the mental challenges to support us

Event organisers, event goers and those who went to the ball or gala

Cash bucket and collection tin holders and collectors at events

Companies and organisations who have donated, supported, partnered or named us as Charity Of The Year

Grant Making Trusts, Foundations and Organisations, from major family charitable trusts, to corporate foundations, to local community organisations and networks

Charitable Funds Committee members who have overseen and driven the charity for 30 years
